The Maryland Professional Development Schools (PDS) Network, a collaboration of school-university partnerships, is sponsoring the annual Professional Development Schools conference, hosted by Anne Arundel County Public Schools on Saturday, October 26, 2019 at Severna Park High School.

This year's conference is aligned with current trends in teacher preparation and will focus on renewing educator preparation through clinical partnerships. The 2018 Report of the AACTE Clinical Practice Commission proclaims what teacher educators know: "Clinical partnerships are the foundation of highly effective clinical practice". We invite you to share innovative ideas and practices resulting in beneficial outcomes for educators, teacher candidates, and P-12 students.
