Innovative School Schedule Workgroup
March 8, 2017
9:30 AM – 12:30 PM

Location: Anne Arundel County Public Library
Odenton Branch
1325 Annapolis Road
Odenton, MD 21113
Meeting Room A

Parking: Free Parking is available in front of the building.

Lunch: Lunch will be provided for meeting participants.

Charge: The Maryland State Department of Education will lead a workgroup to explore innovative school scheduling models. The workgroup will review effective practices and explore impacts of innovative school schedules, with a focus on expanding the school day and year. A report will be produced for the State Board of Education with recommendations for innovative school scheduling models.

The workgroup will identify:

- Innovative schedules that increase academic gains for students at different grade bands;
- Effective use of time for different innovative scheduling models;
- Effective structure, staffing, and financing models for innovative schedules;
- Promising practices and lessons learned from other states that have implemented extended learning time programs.

Meeting Structure: Workgroup sessions will be organized around each charge. Meetings will begin with an interactive presentation by an invited guest or workgroup member on a topic related to innovative school schedules. Presentations will be followed by facilitated discussion on the topic. Recommendations will be developed based on information discussed at meetings.

Meeting Outcomes: By the end of this meeting, participants will have:

- Reviewed and modified draft recommendations;
- Prepared draft recommendations for review by State Board of Education; and
- Discussed next steps.
