DATE: December 5, 2016
SUBJECT: COMAR 13A.05.08
Approved Paid Work-Based Learning Programs (Repeal)
ADOPT

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this item is to request approval to repeal COMAR 13A.05.08 Approved Paid Work-Based Learning Programs.

BACKGROUND/HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE:

The Approved Paid Work-Based Learning Programs law and subsequent regulations were established as a tax credit for employers who hired students in approved paid work-based learning programs. The tax credit was allowed for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2008, and before December 31, 2012.

On June 28, 2016, the State Board of Education was asked to approve a request for permission to publish the repeal of this regulation in the Maryland Register. No comments were received.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

The law (Maryland Education Code Annotated §21-501) was abrogated on June 30, 2013 and therefore, the existing COMAR regulations that governed the Approved Paid Work-Based Learning Programs are no longer needed.

ACTION:

Request that the State Board grant permission to repeal the entire Chapter because the law has been repealed. The tax credit is no longer available to employers who hire students in approved work-based learning programs.
