

AFFIRMATION OF EMPLOYMENT HISTORY REVIEW CONTRACTING AGENCIES

Pursuant to Section 6-113.2 of the Education Article, Annotated Code of Maryland

Section § 6-113.2 of the Education Article, Annotated Code of Maryland, requires contracting agencies to conduct an employment history review prior to hiring individuals applying to certain positions. As part of this review, a contracting agency may use the results of previous employment history reviews of an individual conducted by other contracting agencies. The results of the following employment history review have been received:

Previous Employer Contracting Agency:	Date of Review:
---------------------------------------	-----------------

By signing this form, I swear or affirm that:

- I was employed with the employer providing the results of the employment history review listed above;
- I have reviewed the results of the employment history review listed above;
- The employment history review conducted by the previous Maryland contracting agency as indicated above included all prior employment required to be reported at the time under the law; and
- I have reported to the prospective employer contracting agency any employment subsequent to the date of the employment history review indicated above or missing from the employment history review indicated above; and
- I understand that if I provide false information or willfully fail to disclose material information required by this form, I will be subject to professional discipline up to and including termination and denial of employment, and any other criminal or civil penalties in accordance with state law and regulations.
