

AIM Pathways to Literacy Leadership for Educational Leaders

Developed by the AIM Institute for Learning and Research

The Maryland State Department of Education is excited to offer professional learning to all public school* Maryland educators at no cost.*

The Pathways to Literacy Leadership course equips educational leaders with the essential tools and strategies to develop, refine, and implement a comprehensive literacy plan tailored to their schools' needs. This course prepares participants aiming to establish a clear organizational vision for effective literacy instruction to drive change by implementing systems-based approaches that empower teachers to apply evidence-based practices in their classrooms.

Benefits of the course:

- Enhanced Leadership Skills: Gain the ability to effectively lead literacy initiatives and drive positive change within your district.
- Evidence Based Practices: Understand and apply evidence-based literacy practices to improve instructional quality and student outcomes.
- Support for Teachers: Equip teachers with the necessary tools and knowledge to effectively integrate evidence-based literacy practices in their classrooms.
- Curriculum Agnostic: The tools and strategies learned can be applied to any tier 1 curriculum.

Commitment Includes:

- Completion of asynchronous pre-knowledge inventory
- Completion of 10 asynchronous learning sections
- Attendance and participation at two, day-long, in-person training sessions where you will work on a Literacy Plan for your organization.
- Completion of pre- and post-knowledge inventories
- 12-Month access to the AIM Pathways Platform so materials can be reviewed, applied and accessed in the classroom when needed.
