

Evidence Statements for the Grade 3-8, 10 MCAP ELA/L Assessments:

- provide explanations of the specific standards that are addressed by each claim, and
- detail the evidence that may be used to assess each of these claims

These documents are separated according to whether they correspond to reading or writing standards and are organized around the following four claims:

- Reading Literature: Students read and demonstrate comprehension of grade-level complex literary text
- Reading Informational Text: Students read and demonstrate comprehension of grade-level complex informational texts
- Reading Foundational Skills: Students demonstrate working knowledge of phonics and word recognition
- Vocabulary Interpretation and Use: Students use context to determine the meaning of words and phrases
- Writing: Students write effectively when using and/or analyzing sources

Evidence Statements

Grade: 8

Claim: Reading Literature: Students read and demonstrate comprehension of grade-level complex literary text.

Items designed to measure this claim may address the standards and evidence listed below:

Standards:	Evidences to be measured on the MCAP ELA/L Summative Assessment The student's response:
RL 1: Cite the textual evidence that most strongly supports an analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Provide textual evidence that most strongly supports analysis of what the text says explicitly and/or inferences drawn from the text.
RL 2: Determine a theme or central idea of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text, including its relationship to the characters, setting, and plot; provide an objective summary of the text.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Provide a statement of a theme or central idea of a text, based on textual evidence. ● Provide an analysis of the development of the theme or central idea over the course of the text. ● Provide an analysis of how the theme or central idea relates to the characters, setting, and/or plot. ● Provide an objective summary of a text.
RL 3: Analyze how particular lines of dialogue or incidents in a story or drama propel the action, reveal aspects of a character, or provoke a decision.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Provide an analysis of how particular lines of dialogue or incidents in a story or drama propel the action. ● Provide an analysis of how particular lines of dialogue or incidents in a story or drama provoke a decision. ● Provide an analysis of how particular lines of dialogue or incidents in a story or drama reveal aspects of a character.
RL 5: Analyze how a drama's or poem's form or structure (e.g., soliloquy, sonnet) contributes to its meaning.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Provide a comparison and contrast of the structure of two or more texts. ● Provide an analysis of how the differing structure of each text contributes to its meaning and style.
RL 6: Analyze how an author develops and contrasts the points of view of different characters or narrators in a text.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Provide an analysis of how one or more differences in the points of view of the characters and the audience and/or reader (e.g. through the use of dramatic irony) create such effects as suspense or humor.
RL 7: Compare and contrast a written story, drama, or poem to its audio, filmed, staged, or multimedia version, analyzing the effects of techniques unique to each medium (e.g., lighting, sound, color, or camera focus and angles in a film).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Provide an analysis of the extent to which a filmed production of a story or drama stays faithful to or departs from the text or script, including an evaluation of the choices made by the director or actors.
RL 9: Compare and contrast a fictional portrayal of a time, place, or character and a historical account of the same period as a means of understanding how authors of fiction use or alter history	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Provide an analysis of how a modern work of fiction draws on themes, patterns of events, and/or character types, including describing how the material is rendered new.

Claim: Reading Informational Texts: Students read and demonstrate comprehension of grade-level complex informational texts.

Items designed to measure this claim may address the standards and evidences listed below.

Standards:	Evidences to be measured on the MCAP ELA/L Summative Assessment The student's response:
RI 1: Cite the textual evidence that most strongly supports an analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text. RST 1: Cite specific textual evidence to support analysis of science and technical texts. RH 1: Cite specific textual evidence to support analysis of primary and secondary sources.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● For RI 1, provide textual evidence that most strongly supports analysis of what the text says explicitly and/or inferences drawn from the text. ● For RST 1 and RH 1, provide textual evidence to support an analysis of science and/or technical texts or historical primary and/or secondary sources.
RI 2: Determine a central idea of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text, including its relationship to supporting ideas; provide an objective summary of the text. RST 2: Determine the central ideas or conclusions of a text; provide an accurate summary of the text distinct from prior knowledge or opinions. RH 2: Determine the central ideas or information of a primary or secondary source; provide an accurate summary of the source distinct from prior knowledge or opinions.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Provide a statement of a central idea of a text. . ● Provide an analysis of the development of a central idea over the course of the text, including its relationship to supporting ideas. ● Provide an objective summary of the text ● For RST 2, determine the central ideas or conclusions of a text. ● For RH 2, determine the central ideas of a primary or secondary source.
RI 3: Analyze how a text makes connections among and distinctions between individuals, ideas, or events (e.g., through comparisons, analogies, or categories). RST 3: Follow precisely a multistep procedure when carrying out experiments, taking measurements, or performing technical tasks. RH 3: Identify key steps in a text's description of a process related to history/social studies (e.g., how a bill becomes law, how interest rates are raised or lowered).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● For RI 3, provide an analysis of how a text makes connections among and distinctions between individuals (e.g., through comparisons, analogies, or categories). ● For RI 3, provide an analysis of how a text makes connections among and distinctions between ideas (e.g., through comparisons, analogies, or categories). ● For RI 3, provide an analysis of how a text makes connections among and distinctions between events (e.g., through comparisons, analogies, or categories). ● For RST 3, demonstrate ability to follow a multistep procedure when carrying out experiments, taking measurements, or performing technical tasks. ● For RH 3, provide an identification of key steps in a text's description of a process related to history/social studies.

Claim: Reading Informational Texts: Students read and demonstrate comprehension of grade-level complex informational texts.

Items designed to measure this claim may address the standards and evidences listed below.

Standards:	Evidences to be measured on the MCAP ELA/L Summative Assessment The student's response:
RI 5: Analyze in detail the structure of a specific paragraph in a text, including the role of particular sentences in developing and refining a key concept. RST 5: Analyze the structure an author uses to organize a text, including how the major sections contribute to the whole and to an understanding of the topic. RH 5: Describe how a text presents information (e.g., sequentially, comparatively, causally).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● For RI 5, provide a detailed analysis of the structure of a specific paragraph in a text, including the role of particular sentences in developing and refining a key concept. ● For RST 5, provide an analysis of the structure an author uses to organize a text, including how major sections contribute to the whole and to an understanding of the topic. ● For RH 5, provide a description of how a text presents information (e.g. sequentially, comparatively, causally).
RI 6: Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text and analyze how the author acknowledges and responds to conflicting evidence or viewpoints. RST 6: Analyze the author's purpose in providing an explanation, describing a procedure, or discussing an experiment in a text. RH 6: Identify aspects of a text that reveal an author's point of view or purpose (e.g., loaded language, inclusion or avoidance of particular facts).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● For RI6, provide a statement of an author's point of view in a text. ● For RI6, provide a statement of an author's purpose in a text. ● For RI 6, provide an analysis of how the author acknowledges and responds to conflicting evidence and/or viewpoints. ● For RST 6, provide an analysis of the author's purpose in providing an explanation, describing a procedure, or discussing an experiment in a text. ● For RH 6, provide an identification of aspects of a text that reveal an author's point of view (e.g. loaded language, inclusion or avoidance of particular facts). ● For RH 6, provide an identification of aspects of a text that reveal an author's purpose (e.g. loaded language, inclusion or avoidance of particular facts).
RI 7: Evaluate the advantages and disadvantages of using different mediums (e.g., print or digital text, video, multimedia) to present a particular topic or idea. RST 7: Integrate quantitative or technical information expressed in words in a text with a version of that information expressed visually (e.g., in a flowchart, diagram, model, graph, or table). RH 7: Integrate visual information (e.g., in charts, graphs, photographs, videos, or maps) with other information in print and digital texts.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● For RI 7, provide an evaluation of the advantages and disadvantages of using different mediums (e.g. print or digital text, video, multimedia) to present a particular topic or idea. ● For RST 7, provide an integration of quantitative information expressed in words in a text with a version of that information expressed visually (e.g., in a flowchart, diagram, model, graph, or table). ● For RST 7, demonstrate an integration of technical information expressed in words in a text with a version of that information expressed visually (e.g., in a flowchart, diagram, model, graph, or table). ● For RH 7, provide integration of visual information (e.g., in charts, graphs, photographs, videos, or maps) with other information in print and digital texts.

Claim: Reading Informational Texts: Students read and demonstrate comprehension of grade-level complex informational texts.

Items designed to measure this claim may address the standards and evidences listed below.

Standards:	Evidences to be measured on the MCAP ELA/L Summative Assessment The student's response:
RI 8: Delineate and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, assessing whether the reasoning is sound and the evidence is relevant and sufficient; recognize when irrelevant evidence is introduced. RST 8: Distinguish among facts, reasoned judgment based on research findings, and speculation in a text. RH 8: Distinguish among fact, opinion, and reasoned judgment in a text.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● For RI 8, provide a delineation of the argument and specific claims in a text ● For RI 8, provide an assessment of whether the reasoning of the argument is sound. ● For RI 8, provide an evaluation of whether the evidence is relevant and sufficient to support the claims. ● For RI 8, demonstrate recognition of when irrelevant evidence is introduced. ● For RST 8, provide distinctions among facts, reasoned judgment based on research findings, and/or speculation in a text. ● For RH 8, provide distinctions made among fact, opinion, and/or reasoned judgment in a text.
RI 9: Analyze a case in which two or more texts provide conflicting information on the same topic and identify where the texts disagree on matters of fact or interpretation. RST 9: Compare and contrast the information gained from experiments, simulations, video, or multimedia sources with that gained from reading a text on the same topic. RH9: Analyze the relationship between a primary and secondary source on the same topic.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● For RI 9, provide an analysis of a case in which two or more texts provide conflicting information on the same topic and identify where the texts disagree on matters of fact or interpretation. ● For RI 9, provide an analysis of a case in which two or more texts provide conflicting information on the same topic and identify where the texts disagree on matters of fact or interpretation. ● For RST 9, provide a comparison and contrast of the information gained from experiments, simulations, video or multimedia sources with that gained from reading a text on the same topic. ● For RH 9, provide an analysis of the relationship between a primary and secondary source on the same topic.

Claim: Vocabulary Interpretation and Use: Students use context to determine the meaning of words and phrases.

Items designed to measure this claim may address the standards and evidences listed below:

Standards:	Evidences to be measured on the MCAP ELA/L Summative Assessment The student's response:
RL 4: Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone, including analogies or allusions to other texts.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Demonstrate the ability to determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text (e.g., figurative, connotative) and/ or provides an analysis of the impact of specific word choice on meaning and/or tone, including analogies or allusions to other texts.
RI 4: Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone, including analogies or allusions to other texts. RH 4: Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including vocabulary specific to domains related to history/social studies. RST 4: Determine the meaning of symbols, key terms, and other domain-specific words and phrases as they are used in a specific scientific or technical context relevant to grades 6-8 texts and topics.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Demonstrate the ability to determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text (e.g., figurative, connotative, technical) and/or provides an analysis of the impact of specific word choice on meaning and/or tone, including analogies or allusions to other texts.● For RST 4, demonstrate the ability to determine the symbols, key terms, and other domain-specific words and phrases that are used in a specific scientific or technical context relevant to grades 6–8 texts and topics.

Claim: Vocabulary Interpretation and Use: Students use context to determine the meaning of words and phrases.

Items designed to measure this claim may address the standards and evidences listed below:

Standards:	Evidences to be measured on the MCAP ELA/L Summative Assessment The student's response:
L 4: Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words or phrases based on grade 8 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies. a) Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence or paragraph; a word's position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase. b) Use common, grade-appropriate Greek or Latin affixes and roots as clues to the meaning of a word (e.g., precede, recede, secede). c) Consult general and specialized reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning or its part of speech. d) Verify the preliminary determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Demonstrate the ability to use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence or paragraph; a word's position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
L 5: Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings. a) Interpret figures of speech (e.g. verbal irony, puns) in context. b) Use the relationship between particular words to better understand each of the words. c) Distinguish among the connotations (associations) of words with similar denotations (definitions) (e.g., bullheaded, willful, firm, persistent, resolute).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Demonstrate the ability to determine the connotations (associations) of words with similar denotations (definitions) (e.g., bullheaded, willful, firm, persistent, resolute). ● Demonstrate the ability to interpret figures of speech (e.g., verbal irony, puns) in context. ● Demonstrate the ability to determine the relationship between particular words.
L 6: Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases; gather vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Provide a statement demonstrating accurate meaning and use of grade-appropriate general academic words and phrases.

Claim: Writing: Students write effectively when using and/or analyzing sources.

Items designed to measure this claim may address the standards and evidences listed below.

Standards:	Evidences to be measured on the MCAP ELA/L Summative Assessment The student's response:
W1: Write arguments to support claims with clear reasons and relevant evidence. <ul style="list-style-type: none">a) Introduce claim(s), acknowledge and distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and organize the reasons and evidence logically.b) Support claim(s) with logical reasoning and relevant evidence, using accurate, credible sources and demonstrating an understanding of the topic or text.c) Use words, phrases, and clauses to create cohesion and clarify the relationships among claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence.d) Establish and maintain a formal style.e) Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the argument presented.	Written Expression: The response <ul style="list-style-type: none">a) Demonstrates a full and complete understanding of ideas in the texts by providing an accurate analysis supported with effective and convincing textual evidence.b) States and supports claim(s) in an effective analysis of texts using effective reasoning and relevant evidence.c) Develops clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.d) Ideas are presented clearly and logically from beginning to end; there are strong connections between and among ideas.e) Alternate or opposing claims are clearly acknowledged and soundly addressed. Knowledge of Language and Conventions <ul style="list-style-type: none">● The response demonstrates command of the conventions of standard English at the appropriate level of complexity.
